

Denny Davis's Focused Career Plan

The Work Itself

In My Initial Employment Position, I would like to be performing these job functions:

In my first employment position, I would like to be doing several different tasks that are in the management function of being employed. These tasks include the management of employees, also working out conflicts between employees that are working on my job site and various other tasks related to being in charge of a job site. I would like to be in a position where I have responsibility for seeing a project through to completion.

The Work Group and/or Boss

In My Initial Employment Position, I would like to work with co-workers and/or report to a manager/supervisor who are:

In my first employment position, I want to be able to work closely with my co-workers. This will allow me to get to know them and learn from their existing knowledge. A smooth-running team can also be formed through working with my co-workers. I want to be able to report to my supervisor whenever the need arises. I want him/her to be there for me when I have questions or concerns about the project that is at hand.

The Organization

In My Initial Employment Position, I would like to work for an organization that has these characteristics:

In my first employment position, I would like the organization where I am employed to be built on integrity and reputation. I know that if this is a fairly new organization these two attributes may be hard to find. Even if the company is new, I should be able to tell if this company will be reputable or not. I would like to work for a company that is friendly with a close knit group of co-workers. I want to feel free to ask employees how their life is outside of work. I want to be able to go out with my co-workers and enjoy things that do not deal with work. I would like the company I work for to act as a big family.

The Industry

In My Initial Employment Position, I would like to work in an industry that has the following makeup:

In my first employment position, I would like to work in the construction industry. I am interested in all forms of construction whether it be agricultural facilities, commercial, residential, or road/civil construction. I believe that I would be happy working in any of these areas.

The Geographic Location

In My Initial Employment Position, I would like to be located in a setting that includes:

In the first employment position that I hold, I would like to be located in central Ohio, although I am not limited to that area. I would like to have my home located in central Ohio, but I am willing to work anywhere in the state of Ohio or surrounding states.
