Construction Project Manager

Seeking individuals with experience pertaining to multifamily, single family or commercial real estate projects. More than basic construction knowledge required.

Does this describe you?

- Do your achievements put you in the top 5% of everything you do?
- Are you able to manage a vast array of projects and ensure timely completion?
- Are you often complimented on your attention to details?
- Are you a common-sense problem solver?
- Do you push yourself to achieve what others can't?
- Do you consistently demonstrate a high level of integrity? Do you do the right thing in every situation?

If this describes you, this is your opportunity to be part of a high-growth organization considered to be “The Best” in its industry. At The Connor Group, we believe our people – 400-plus nationwide – are the key to our unparalleled growth and success.

The Connor Group is a national leader in operating upscale apartment communities. Founded in 1991, the company has gone from $0 to $2 billion in assets and is one of the country’s fastest growing, privately held real estate investment firms.

Qualified candidates should be able to:

- Organize their time while overseeing numerous projects concurrently.
- Handle a diverse workload with tight timelines.
- Effectively interface with all levels of management.
- Demonstrate GRIT, which, in our world, is defined as passion and perseverance.

The qualified candidate will be afforded the following opportunities:

- Best-in-class compensation and benefits
- A one of a kind longevity bonus
- World-class culture and people
- Advancement and growth opportunity in a company with 9 straight years of record earnings
- Never worry about being laid off over the winter. Year round work.
