

Coldwater Engineering Summer Internship:

Seeking Ag/Eco intern to work with Coldwater this summer, working with our senior engineer out of the Lorain office.

Some of the potential tasks include:

- Construction oversight on Stream Restoration project
- Water sampling activities
- Design/concept planning for stream restoration project
- Design support for large reclamation project of an old steel mill site.
- Post-construction project monitoring & removal of tree guards
- Planning and organizing support for Kayak-A-Thon (event held to encourage recreation on the Black River, to celebrate the restoration efforts that are underway along the river, and to highlight water quality efforts that are improving the water quality of the Black River
- Assist with research for innovative restoration techniques.
- Monitoring of wetland plots
- MS4 stormwater sampling
- Exposure to CAD/GIS
- General office and equipment upkeep.

To learn more or express interest, contact Dr. Jay Martin, martin.1130@osu.edu